A PLEA FOR THE EPIGRAPH.

[By Agnes R. T. Pratt.]

The names and memories of great men are the dowery of a nation.—[Pasquale Villari.

It is through excavation and the discovery of the epigraph that much of our knowledge of ancient history is obtained. Modern archaeology implies excavation.

Etruscan, Chinese, Egyptian, Grecian and other historical facts of priceless importance have been wisely recorded portrayed on sarcopagi, tombs, pyramids and others sepulchres, where the ever moving finger of time has the least possible chance of effacement.

The mere mention of Karnak, Thebes, Byzantium, and Pompeii, Rameses, Cheops, and Ptolemy, presents pictures of a glorious wealth of buried treasures of literature, science and art of inestimable value.

We rediscover aboriginal America through the updigging of mounds, and the down tearing of cliffs. Time and tide, fire and flood, war and rapine, ravage the forest, the city, the church and the art gallery, and that degraded creature, the vandal, spares not the revered relic of the home, nor the sanctity of the shrine.

If then we would preserve history for posterity, for the school boy of 3000 A. D., let us follow the example of the wise, the far sighted ancients, and in massive masonry bury deeply such treasures of biographical interest,—of literature and art, as shall enrich and beautify the world.

A magnificent mausoleum of a buried tomb, without the Epigraph, may, to the future archaeologist, mean but sordid wealth or "tainted money." Names are duplicated all over the land; this leads to confusion and disputation, and so on to iconoclasm, and that invariably to irreverence,—and irreverence will undermine the mightiest nation.

It is true that some of the wisest and best of men are buried, no one knows where; but this only leads to tedious speculation and expensive search, with an ever haunting doubt of authentication. The recovery of the body of John Paul Jones is a recent case in point. Why should a ruler of a nation, chosen to represent a government by the people, be laid in the silent grave with merely the name and date of birth on his coffin.

We read that two of our late honored and beloved presidents were thus placed in sepulchre, William McKinley and Grover Cleveland. In my humble opinion it is a misplaced, a mistaken modesty. It is due the man; it is due the people, that he who has served his country wisely and faithfully as its supreme executive should be accorded not only national and civic obsequies befitting his station, but what is of more lasting importance, if for no other reason that the enlightenment of the future historian, the great man's casket should bear a biographical epigraph. While "no really great man ever thought himself so," yet that man or that woman, who by honest achievement and incorruptible morals has been distinguished and placed on a pedestal of national preeminence, the churchman, the schoolman, the statesman, the philanthropist, the artist, the author, the inventor, is entitled to undying commemoration by a grateful loyal loving people.

I plead for the epigraph and the epigram in memoriam, especially on the casket of the distinguished dead, for at the last "the tomb is the pedestal of greatness."

KING EDWARD IS FOR PEACE.

In reply to an address yesterday from the delegates to the Seventeenth Universal Peace Conference, King Edward made a strong appeal for peace, in which he said:

"There is nothing from which I derive more gratification than from the knowledge that my efforts in the cause of international peace have not been without fruit, and a consciousness of the generous appreciation with which they have been received both by my own people and those of other countries.

"Rulers of states can set before themselves no higher aims than the promotion of international good understanding, and cordial friendship among the nations of the world. It is the surest and most direct means by which humanity may be enabled to realize its noblest ideals, and its attainment will ever be the object of my constant endeavors."

More than 100 societies, representing sixteen countries, are in attendance.

Edwin Meade and Benjamin F. Trueblood are among the prominent Americans present. The meetings are held in Canton Hall, in London.

Bert Barber, of Elton, Wis., says: "I have only taken four doses of DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills and they have done for me more than any other medicine has ever done." Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, JULY 29, 1908.

IT WAS announced at Oyster Bay yesterday that President Roosevelt would maintain an attitude of non-interference in the selection of all candidates for office. It was added, however, that "the president will probably see different people from time to time during the campaign, but that doesn't mean that he will interfere in any nomination." The president, it was said, will maintain a policy of absolute non-interference. But, it was further added, "the president is intensely interested in Mr. Taft's success, and will do all that is legitimate and proper to aid in Mr. Taft's election." This is a glaring contradiction in itself, but every one who knows Mr. Roosevelt knows that he will "butt in" on every occasion and that he will also throw the whole weight of the administration in favor of the election of his favorite.

MR. TAFT'S speech of acceptance, a synopsis of which was published in yesterday's Gazette, proclaims the purpose of his administration if he is elected president. It will be to "clinch" the "policies" of President Roosevelt. There is really little new in his speech, but it blasts any hopes of those who have entertained them that he would break away from the hypnotic influence of Mr. Roosevelt, which he has been under so long. People have gotten tired of Mr. Roosevelt's "policies" and the best way for them to show weariness is to vote the democratic ticket.

INDIGNATION has been excited among democrats at Lincoln, Neb., by the discovery that the political authorities are sending out republican literature under the government frank. Some of this literature has been given to Mr. Bryan by recipients of it and he is greatly interested, but declines to make comment. It can be accepted that not only the mails, but all other government means at command of the present administration will be exerted to defeat the democratic party.

MR. HEARST'S party, the Independence party, at their convention in Chicago last night put a national ticket in the field and adopted a platform of principles. Thomas Hisgen, of New York, was nominated for president and John Temple Graves was nominated for vice president. The ticket was put in the field for spite by Mr. Hearst and has no more chance of winning than had any of the "third parties" that has preceded it.

THE day after the nomination of Mr. Bryan the republicans sent out a report that a former democratic United States Senator had declared that he would not vote for Bryan, but would support Taft. Since that day nothing further has been heard from this worthy. Was he a myth? or if not the republicans are evidently as much ashamed of him as the democrats would be.

CHAIRMAN LLOYD, of the democratic congressional committee, who has just returned from a trip through the west claims that the next House will be democratic by 34 majority. Indications certainly point that way.

THE banks have discovered that if they join one of the currency associations the law makes no provision for voluntary withdrawal from such association and some of the big bankers, therefore, refuse to participate.

THAT republican policies have produced business panic and depression is shown by Bradstreet's report of 7,560 failures in the first half of this year with total liabilities of more than double any year since 1897.

MR. TAFT is no longer in ignorance of the fact that he has been nominated.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, July 29.

Acting Secretary of the Navy Newberry rejected today all of the bids for the three colliers authorized by the last session of Congress, and new bids will be advertised for as soon as the specifications can be revised to meet the approval of the board of construction. This action was taken following a conference between Mr. Newberry, Rear Admiral Converse, president of the board of construction, and officials of the four competing shipbuilding companies. These companies and their respective bids are the Maryland Steel Company, who proposed to build the three vessels for $376,000 each; the New York Shipbuilding Company, at $438,000 each; Wm. Cramps & Sons, $475,000 each; and the Massachusetts Steamship Company at $525,000 each. The action of Mr. Newberry was probably followed by a protest made by Henry S. Lyons, representing the Massachusetts Steamship Company, and by President Wood of the Maryland Steamship Company, each claiming the right to the contract.

Former Senator Harris, of Kansas, called on Secretary of War Wright this morning to request that steps be taken by the War Department to harness the Kaw river in Kansas, which for several years has had a habit of going on periodical wonderings along the border line between the state and Missouri. Almost everywhere there is a shower this river develops a mad desire, first to swing Kansas City into Kansas and then to swing Kansas City, Kan., into Mississippi. Secretary Wright informed Mr. Harris that Capt Edward Schulz, the engineer officer at Kansas City, already has been instructed to throughly investigate this problem.

Cotter T. Bride, who is treasurer of the Bryan Democratic Club, has opened an office at 510 Twelfth street northwest for the receipt of contributions to the democratic campaign fund. Mr. Bride is a personal friend of Mr. Bryan and one of his most ardent supporters.

Jacob P. Hockman has been appointed postmaster at Strole, Page county, Va., vice A. B. Dovel, resigned.

The action of the Honduras government in cancelling the exequaturs of the American and all other consuls at the town of Ceiba is still unexplained. The American consul, Drew Linard, has not yet responded to the State Department's inquiry as to the facts.

The will of the late Rev. D. F. Sprigg, formerly of Alexandria, was admitted to probate today. His estate valued at $50,000 is bequeathed to his daughter, Mrs. Eliza Francis Perry. At the death of the beneficiary, the estate is to be divided among her four children. A bequest of $5,000 is made to Francis Sprigg Perry, as an advance which is to be deducted from his portion, which he will receive at the death of his mother.

Officials of the Smithsonian Institution have decided to withdraw the veil of secrecy which has been maintained in connection with the aerodrome constructed by the late Prof. Langley, and the machine which plunged into the Potomac some years since will hereafter be easily accessible. It is said that William Thaw was Prof. Langley's financial backer.

BEAT ROANOKE DENTIST.

Dr. W. S. Gregory, a prominent dentist, was assaulted in his office in Roanoke, yesterday, by President E. M. Coulter, of the National Business College., and Lee Keedick, of New York, his brother-in-law.

Coulter and Keedick entered the office, locked the doors and proceeded to beat the doctor until his cries of "murder" attracted hundreds of people, and brought the police to the rescue. When the door was opened, Gregory had crawled under, a table, with one of his eyes closed and a big bump over it, and bruises all over his body, where he had been struck with a heavy piece of glass. Coulter and Keedick were arrested, and fully a thousand people followed them to the police station, where they were bailed out.

It is alleged that the dentist had insulted a lady friend of the two men while she was under treatment in his office. Gregory would make no statement. Coulter and Keedick later reported the alleged insult to the police.

Cannibals Want Independence.

Lisbon, July 29.—Barely prevented by the timely arrival of the French cruiser Cassard from achieving liberty by eating their oppressors, the native cannibal population of Portugese Guinea is negotiating for independence, according to dispatches today.

The European inhabitants at Bissao, the provincial capital, were rescued days after the outside world had given them up as dead. Provisions were exhausted ammunition running low, civilians and even women were fighting night and day alongside the military force of 200 Portugese soldiers. Portugal had no military force and no warship in the vicinity. The Cassard, cruising in African waters, visited Bissao largely by accident and without any knowledge of the pending struggle. Under the cruiser's guns the natives were forced to fall back.

BRAINED WITH AN AXE.

Elijah L. Cole, a former saloonkeeper, was instantly killed yesterday afternoon at Petersburg by John Ashby Mullen. After killing Cole, Mullen attempted to kill his wife, Minnie L. Mullen.

The weapon used was an axe, and Mullen assigned as his reasons intimacy between his wife and Cole. Mullen, in a statement, claims that his wife confessed to this intimacy to him and that he warned her to desist, and told her that he would kill them both. Cole was killed in a bed in Mullen's house, his skull being crushed to a jelly and his brains scattered over the walls of the room. After killing Cole, Mullen assaulted his wife, striking her a glancing blow on the head and several blows in the back with the same axe that he had just killed Cole with.

Mrs. Mullen claims that her husband condoned her faults, and that yesterday morning he carried a note to Cole inviting him to call on her that evening; that Cole and her husband were the best of friends, and that her husband was aware of the fact that Cole was in her room.

The police are inclined to the belief that Cole was foully murdered, and that Mullen brought him to his own house with the intention of killing him.

GAVE LIFE FOR SON.

W. W. Wotring, aged 38 years, a Baltimore and Ohio engineer, was drowned in the river, near Cumberland, Md., yesterday afternoon, while trying to save his little son Carl from drowning. Earl and Carl were swimming, when Carl got out to where the water was over his depth and was drowning. Mr. Wotring, who could not swim, was sitting on the bank watching the boys, and he waded in after his son and went down in the same place.

H. S. Wotring, a brother of the man who was drowned, jumped in and saved Carl and then went to the aid of the father, but he had gone under the surface, and his body was not recovered until some time later. Mr. Wotring leaves a widow and five children.

Miss Maud Needham, of Lynchburg, who, last session, was assistant to the treasurer at Sweet Brier Institute, leaves on August 1 for Thomson, Ga., to become private secretary to Thomas E. Watson, the populist nominee.

H. Crawford Bounds, superintendent of the Wicomico county schools, and J. Walter Huffington, principal of the Wicomico High School, Md., who recently resigned, have accepted positions in the Virginia State Training Schools, at Front Royal.

D. W. Doggett, of Lancaster county, saw a nest of partridge eggs. He carried them home and placed them under a hen. All except one hatched. The hen is caring for them and they seem to be perfectly contended. The question is will they desert their mother and fly away when grown?

K. B. Stoner, of Fincastle, near Roanoke, has sold his rights in a new wheat seed which he has developed to westerners for a quarter of a million dollars. The first single seed brought forth 120 stalks of wheat. Seed sent to a number of states for experiment have done equally as well.

The contest of the liquor men growing out of the local option election last spring, in which Fredericksburg went dry, began there yesterday before Judge Goolrick. After argument by counsel on both sides, adjournment was taken until today when St. George R. Fitzhugh will speak for the "wets" and Speaker R. E. Byrd, of Winchester, will represent the "drys."

It is the opinion of Dr. S. C. Hatcher, a member of the State board of charities and corrections, also a former pastor of Norfolk, but now of Farmville, that Indiana will certainly give Bryan and Kern a handsome majority in the November election. Dr. Hatcher has just returned from a trip through Indiana, where he went, accompanied by Mr. P. A. Irving, in the interest of the State board.

John H. Merritt, of Charlottesville, said to have been the best locomotive engineer in America, was killed by a train at Clifton Forge yesterday. He was on his way to the engine-house to prepare for his return trip to Charlottesville. On the westbound main track, just west of Gladys Inn, he stepped from behind the yard engine directly in front of No 8, which struck and fatally injured him.

News of the Day.

George Raisbeck and his wife, of New York are supposed to have been drowned at Annandale Minn.

A republican uprising in Lisbon was nipped in the bud by the Portuguese government.

Three hundred Chinese were drowned when a Chinese steamer foundered in a typhoon recently and six vessels were blown ashore at Hongkong.

The Central Pacific Railroad has paid the twentieth, and last, note for $2,939,661 in liquidation of its indebtedness to the government.

The executive committee of the people's party has challenged William J. Bryan to meet Thomas E. Watson in joint debate.

Mrs. John Drew, mother of Hazel Drew, whose body was found in Teal pond N. Y., declares that the girl was hypnotized and murdered.

Representative William B. McKinley, of Illinois, has been chosen to succeed Representative Sherman as chairman of the republican congressional campaign committee.

Dr. Andrew Bergen Cropsey, the veterinary surgeon, who shot and killed his wife at her home, in Bath Beach New York, died suddenly in the Raymond street jail, Brooklyn, yesterday.

Because they intervened in behalf of the noncombatants, the consular representatives of the various governments at Ceiba have incurred the displeasure of President Davila, of Honduras, and he has canceled their exequaturs.

The visit of the prince of Wales to Quebec came to an end last night when the prince went aboard the battleship Indomitable, which sailed shortly after midnight. His departure was marked by the same scenes of enthusiasm which marked his arrival a week ago.

Representative Lilwellyn Powers, of of the Fourth Maine congressional district, died at his summer home at Houlton, yesterday. He was 69 years of age. He was serving his fifth term in the national House of Representative. He was twice elected governor of the state

Dr. Franklin T. Howe, for many years news editor of the Washington Star, died last night at his home, Brookland, after an illness of less than a week. Dr. Howe was born in Boston in 1843, and was therefore, sixty-five years old. During the war he served in a Massachusetts regiment.

The steamer Maryland on its trip up the Chesapeake on Monday was followed for a long distance by a large shark. The presence of the fish created fear among some of the passengers, and a large amount of food was thrown over to the shark, which caused it to stop its pursuit of the steamer.

Charles L. Rosenick of Baltimore, a night engineer at the Baltimore Refrigerating Company, Eutaw and Barre streets, was killed last night about 8 o'clock while attending his engines. No one witnessed the accident, but it is supposed that Rosenick, while oiling the works, was caught by the flywheel and thrown across the length of the room.

Today's Telegraphic News

Fear Uprising in India.

London, July 29.—England is face to face with another mutiny in India, by the side of which the uprising of 1857 will be child's play. Long apprehensive of the present situation, government officials were thrown into a panic today by the report of conditions there brought by army officers and civilians who have just returned from India. One of these army officers said:

"Something has got to be done quickly. India can only be ruled by fear. There are nearly 60,000 Europeans in India as against 300,000,000 natives. If they get the upper hand the least bit more a mutiny will result and every white man will be killed and every white woman attacked before England can send help."

India is getting more of an "upper-hand." The whole country is reeking with sedition and all of England's repressive measures have failed to check its spread. Alarmed at the acknowledged danger, the most drastic laws were recently passed against the publication of seditious articles and throwing of bombs, but the only effect has been to stir up greater hatred of English rule.

The Indian nationalist party which is growing with alarming rapidity, is back of the impending conflict. Its avowed aim is to sweep Britain out of India. Its members openly boast that they have corrupted half of the native population and that in the event of an uprising, these would join with the movement for freedom. English army officers in India confess that in case of an outbreak, they could not rely on the Indian soldiers. On every hand it is conceded that were England to become involved in a war with another nation, India would mutiny immediately and make a strike for liberty that would stagger the mother country.

Mrs. Vanderbilt's Son Killed.

Paris, July 29.—G. Wiothrop Sands, a son of Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, by her first marriage, was killed in an automobile accident near Poissy today, according to a report received here.

The first report of the accident was to the effect that the victim was W. K. Vanderbilt, jr. An extra edition of the Patrie announced this fact and a furore was created on the Bourse and in the American colony. Later came a report that a mistake had been made due to the fact that the accident occurred to the Vanderbilt car.

The automobile carrying Sands and his chauffeur overturned at a sharp turn in the road near Poissy, pinning the victims beneath the wreckage. They were released with difficulty, as the car was in flames by the time the rescuers reached the scene. Sands was taken to the Chateau Saint Louis, where he died of his injuries within a short time. The chauffeur was also terribly injured and is not expected to live.

For some reason a veil of mystery has been thrown around the accident and attaches at Saint Louis refuse to talk of the matter.

Mr. Sands was making his home at his stepfather's chateau at Poissy. He was 27 years old and a well-known athlete. He spent a year at Harvard and three years ago married Miss Tayo Newton, of 120 west 57th street, New York.

Consolation Race.

London, July 29.—Sir Thomas Lipton today in an effort to clear up the ill feeling engendered by the disqualification of J. C. Carpenter, the American, in the 400 meter Olympic race, offered a $500 cup for a race between Carpenter and Lieutenant Halswelle, the English runner, who was beaten by Carpenter, but won the re-running of the event without competition. That Halswelle is not anxious to meet the speedy Cornell man is shown by his refusal to go to America at the invitation of the Knights of Columbus. Lipton, however, hopes to be able to bring the men together in this country. Lipton says that both countries have been put in a false light by this squabble. The offer of Lipton was an outcome of his entainment of the American athletes yesterday. Mike Murphy, trainer of the Americans, said he would try to induce Carpenter to accept the proposal. Halswelle is in Scotland and has not been heard from.

Thomas McIntyre Dead.

Baltimore, Md., July 29.—Thomas A. McIntire, head of the firm of T. A. McIntyre & Co., brokers, of New York, whose recent failure caused a tremendous sensation in banking and brokerage circles, died this morning at the home of Mr. Henry E. Boyd in this city.

The direct cause of Mr. McIntyre's demise has not yet been made public. It is known, however, that the New York financier had been in poor health for some time. Mr. McIntyre only reached Baltimore this morning, coming from Old Point, Va., There he had been staying in an effort to regain his lost health.

Boston Brokers.

Boston, July 29.—All connection between the curb brokers and the Boston stock exchange will end on August 1; so today the curb men formed an organization which they hope will give their transaction something of the weight that will be lost by the severance of relations with the regular exchange. The latter body some days ago notified its members that none of them either personally or through their firms could be associated with the curb. Thomas W. Lawson, the most prominent broker outside the stock exchange, has been asked to assume the chairmanship of the curb board of governors.

The Prince Departs.

Quebec, July 29.—On board the Indomitable, Britain's greatest warship the Prince of Wales sailed this morning for England. The big fighter is scheduled to make the fatest time on record across the Atlantic. It was only after a farewell dinner aboard the flagship Exmouth last night that the rounds of the prince's activities in Quebec ended. For the week of his stay he has been constantly on the go and though his lack of magnetism failed greatly to win the crowds who have cheered him the heartiness of the applause showed plainly that Canada is heart and soul for the Britains. Before leaving the prince summoned several American newspaper men and expressed his regret that he was unable to accept the many invitations he received to visit the United States. Vice President Fairbanks after giving out an interview laudatory of Canada and of Quebec has gone to Mackinaw Island. Mrs. Fairbanks accompanied him.

Holland and Venezuela.

The Hague, July 29.—The Netherlands government has ordered the battleships Heemskerich, Piet-Hein and Evertsen and the cruisers Holland, Utrecht and Friesland to assemble in the West Indies. The commander of the West Indies squadron has been notified to be prepared to switch his fleet to Venezuela at a moment's notice. The ministry of marine is negotiating for the purchase of several small, fast steamships to supplement the fleet in the event of a blockade of Venezuelan ports. The order for the assembling of the fleet occasioned intense excitement throughout the capital, as it is taken to mean that Netherlands will, despite the socialists opposition at home, plunge into war with Venezuela unless Castro completely backs down from his arrogant position. Important information has undoubtly reached the government within the last few hours which has led to the warlike preparations. Last night it was announced that the talk of a naval demonstration against Venezuela was premature and that the rupture between the two countries was up to that time only diplomatic. Since this statement a complete change has come over the ministry of marine and other government officials there is every indication that the country is preparing for a struggle with Venezuela. It is still hoped here that the movement of a fleet against Venezuela will cause Castro to apologize for the summary dismissal of Minister De Reus.

Count Boni's Demands.

Paris, July 29.—Profiting by the Princess de Sagan's effort to sell her properties in France and remove to the German estates of her husband, Count Boni de Castellane is trying to effect a settlement of his claim for his children without a fresh resort to legal proceedings.

The count and princess have agreed to wait until October before asking the court to enter a final decree with regard to the children. The count, however, will appear in court tomorrow to object to his former wife's selection of a new tutor for the children without consulting him.

The princess' divorce decree from the count prohibited her from taking the children out of France without their father's permission. Boni's lawyers are representing to the princess now that she has no chance of releasing her desire to change her home except through an arrangement with the count. In the arrangement the count is insisting on the custody of the children for several months each year and a liberal allowance for their care. So far the princess has refused the count's overtures, but the difficulty of her position is so apparent that it is believed she will eventually yield.

Burning a Body.

New York, July 29.—A revolting crime was bared today when the body of a woman was found burning in a bonfire in a vacant lot in Calyer street, Brooklyn. That the destruction of the body was to hide murder seems certain but whether the victim's identity will be discovered is doubtful, the body being so far consumed. Detectives in the district are searching the vicinity but with little hope of discovering the identity of the victim or of obtaining a clew to the slayer.

The face of the woman was eaten away by acid, the hands and feet bound with ropes and a deep gash was in the throat. Discovery of her identity and detection of her slayer constitutes a problem without parallel in the police records of the city. The body of the victim now lies at the morgue awaiting autopsy and at Brooklyn headquarters James Ruddick, watchman, who found the body, and his son, Joseph, a pedler, are under arrest.

As nearly as can be ascertained from the remains the girl was not more than 20 years old. She had evidently been mistreated. No crime in Brooklyn's police records has created such activity, and meantime, Ruddick and his son are being sweated in the hope that they may reveal some clew to the murder.

Suicide Feared.

Boston, July 29.—"Come to Boston when you get your vacation and I'll give you a good time" wrote John H. Meeks to his daughter, Clara Iola Meeks. The girl was living with her mother, Mrs. James Halpin, at Ridgefield, Conn., her parents having been divorced. She had not seen her father for 11 years and she accepted his invitation only to find that he wanted her to take charge of his body when he committed suicide. Today the police are dragging for Meeks' body in the Charles river, for yesterday afternoon on a bridge over that stream were found a man's hat and shoes and a letter addressed to Miss Meeks, declaring that her father was out of work and despondent and was going to throw himself into the river. He asked her to notify the rest of the family.

Terrible Loss of Life.

Canton, July 29.—The loss of life in the typhoon that swept the Chinese coast for two days will run into thousands, according to reports that are reaching here today. More than a hundred native vessels, most of them small craft, were destroyed, few of their crews being saved. The British river gunboat Robin and the French gunboats Argus and Vigilante were damaged seriously. The torpedo boat destroyer Whiting was driven ashore at Lyeemoon Pass. The river steamer Sanon sank at her pier. For several hundred miles along the coast reports of heavy damage are coming in. Buildings were wrecked in all the towns in the path of the typhoon and the loss of life on land was almost as heavy as by drownings. The Pacific mail office here and Queens College suffered heavy losses.

Balloon Ascension.

Baltimore, Md., July 29.—The balloon in which Howard Warfield Gill, his cousin, Ernest Gill, and Hillary Beachey, expected to make a trip from Baltimore to New York, ascended at Electric Park at 1:16 p. m.

Under the big bag were Ernest Gill, Lincoln Beachey, the daring young inventor and aerial navigator, and his brother Hillery Beachey. Howard Gill did not reach the starting point in time to make the ascension. The wind is brisk from the northeast, the weather heavy and the balloon, after soaring high in the air, is traveling in a southwesterly direction, which is directly contrary to the direction which they would have to sail to reach New York.

Thousands are sick every year with some form of Bowel Complaint. Thousands are cured by taking Dr. SETH ARNOLD'S BALSAM. Warranted to give satisfaction by Frank Warfield and Henry Callan.

Lincoln, Neb., July 29.—The United Press representative secured today from a close friend of William J. Bryan the first authentic outline of his plan of campaign. He will make a few prepared speeches at central points and nearly all of these will be made by the first of October.

During the month of October he expects to remain at home and assist in educational work of the campaign through the discussion of public questions in the form of interviews, signed articles and letters.

Bryan arose early today and was busy with his large correspondence and the study of Taft's speech of acceptance.

In all probability he will some time today issue a formal statement covering his views of the Taft speech.

The contributions from democratic newspapers continue to be received. The fund is beginning to assume considerable proportions.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

The House of Lords yesterday carried the amendment to the old age pensions bill, which limits its operation to seven years, despite the warning that the action infringed the privileges of the House of Commons.

Tonight Mr. Taft will leave Cincinnati for Hot Springs, Va., where he expects to remain for about a month before returning to his home city for the campaign. Most of the visitors who thronged Cincinnati yesterday have left for their homes and the city is taking off her flags.

A Colorado Fuel and Iron Company train was hurled from the top of a sixty foot trestle at the steel plant at Pueblo, Col., early today, crushing to death Engineer Thomas and Fireman Roach. Several other trainmen had narrow escapes.

E. H. Harriman and George J. Gould, with bankers interested with them are conferring at New York today to decide upon how to take care of the $8,000,000 Wheeling and Lake Erie note issues which matures August 1. An nouncement of their decision is expected before night.

Despite the reported approaching marriage of the Duke D'Abruzzi and Miss Katherine Elkins, Queen Margherita, of Italy, is still persisting in her opposition to the marriage. One of the dowager's intimate friends said today that should the marriage take place she will cut both the duke and his bride from her list of acquaintances.

Friends of Count Tolstoi concerning his objections to a celebration in honor of his eightieth birthday, August 28, today made known their plans for paying homage to the great "Torch Bearer." A gigantic pilgrimage from all over Russia to Tolstoi's home at Tula is one of the proposed features. The pilgrims are pledged to make the trip on foot and live the "simple life" on the road.

Edward R. Britton, president of the Eagle Savings and Loan Association, was arrested this afternoon at Brooklyn, N. Y., after being indicted by the grand jury, on a charge of grand larceny. Frederick Schroder, vice president of the Eagle Savings and Loan Association, was also arrested with President Britton, charged with embezzlement of $47,000 Both men were arraigned before Judge Dike but made no pleas. They were both held in $10,000. It is said that all the money went into a Dakota mining venture which failed to pan out.

Battling Nelson and Joe Gans are to fight for the lightweight championship of the world at Colma, Cal., on September 9.—James Goffroth today succeeded in matching the men, who will fight 45 rounds for 75 per cent of the gate receipts. They will weigh in at 133 pounds ringside and will split the purse at sixty and forty. Eddie Smith has been agreed upon as referee. There is no doubt that the contest will draw one of the greatest crowds in the history of pugilism.

Refusing to take the stand in his own defense Archie Herron, who was on trial at New Brunswick, N. J., for the murder of Rev. S. B. D. Prickett, of Metuchen, sat stolidly when called yesterday by his counsel, Lawyer Cowenhoven. "I won't have anything to do with the trial," said Herron, and no entreaties could move him from his seat. Herron was later convicted of murder in the first degree and sentenced to be electrocuted during the week of September 7, for killing Rev. S. B. D. Prickitt, at Metuchen, July 15.

The authorities today are trying to clear the mystery surrounding the death of George Raisbeck and wife of New York, whose bodies were found in Lake Sylvia, near Annadale, Minn., yesterday. Raisbeck was president of the Phillip Lake Manufacturing Company of New York and had a summer cottage at the lake. Near an empty boat was found in a kneeling posture in shallow water, the body of Mrs. Raisbeck. It bore several bruises and cuts, but there was no water in the lungs. The man's body was in the middle of the lake. He had been drowned. The coroner returned a verdict of drowning in both cases.

Masked robbers held up Clifford Cakes, ticket agent of the New York Central, early today and escaped with about $100. Cakes was in the depot when the robbers entered and, poking a gun in his face, forced him to open the safe. No sooner had they secured the cash and fled than Cakes gave the alarm and within an hour detectives from Utica and posses from the county near here took up the chase.

Women Fight Over Man.

Pottsville, Pa., July 29.—Quarreling over a man whom each claimed, two jealous and belligerent young women, Dora Eberwine and Mary Oswald, were arrested and sent to the county jail. They fought desperately, clinging to each other with such tenacity that it took two policemen to part them. Finally a hose was turned upon them, which was effective in separating the pair. One of the fighters had her clothes torn from her back. Even then, unabashed, she made a second attack on the other woman. She was taken bodily into a house and clothed.

DIED.

Mrs. SARAH R. BROWN, widow of the late Alex. Brown, died at the residence of her niece, Mrs. N. R. Haddox, at ten o'clock a. m. on July 28th, in the 76th year of her age.

Death has entered in our home,
A voice we loved is stilled.
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.
Then cease ye weeping friends,
And rest in God's decree,
For hath not Christ declared of such
His kingdom was to be.

The funeral will be held from her late residence Thursday evening at three o'clock. Friends of the family are invited to attend.—[Baltimore papers please copy.

THE INDEPENDENCE PARTY.

Permanent Chairman Walsh called the independence party convention in Chicago to order yesterday evening and charged both democrats and republicans with having stolen their platforms from Hearst.

The report of the committee on rules, which was adopted unanimously, declared in favor of the adoption of the two-thirds vote for all nominations.

The names of M. W. Howard, of Alabama; Thos. L. Hisgen, of Massachusetts; John Temple Graves, of Georgia, and Reuben R. Lyons, of New York, were placed in nomination for president.

During the roll call, when Kansas was reached, J. I. Snepard, of that state, asked the chairman if it was possible to vote for any candidate for the nomination who was not a member of the party. The reply was that the question has not yet arisen, whereupon Mr. Shepard took the platform, announcing that he had a candidate.

He mentioned the "candidate of the democratic party" and a storm of hisses and boos greeted the reference. A riot nearly followed and an attempt was made to assault Shepard.

Thomas Hisgen, of Massachusetts, was nominated for president on the third ballot, and John Temple Graves was nominated for vice president on the first ballot. W. R. Hearst, though not a candidate, received a complimentary vote of half a hundred.

The first ballot resulted: Hisgen, 396; Howard, 200; Graves, 213; Lyons, 71; Hearst, 49

The third ballot resulted: Hisgen, 831; Howard, 38; Graves, 7; Hearst, 2.

The platform sets forth:

"Our action is based upon a determination to wrest the conduct of public affairs from the hand of selfish interests, political tricksters and corrupt bosses.

"As of first importance to restore the power of government to the people, to make their will supreme in the primaries, in the elections and in the control of public officials after they have been elected, we declare for direct nominations, the initiative and referendum and the right of recall.

"We demand severe and effective legislation against all forms of corrupt practices at elections, and advocate prohibiting the use of money at elections except for meetings, literature and the necessary traveling expenses of candidates.

"The independence party condemns the arbitrary use of the writ of injunction and contempt proceedings as a violation of the fundamental American right of trial by jury.

"We indorse the eight hour work day.

"We favor the enactment of a law condemning as illegal any combination or conspiracy to blacklist employes.

"We advocate state and federal inspection of railways to secure a greater safety for railway employes and for the traveling public.

"The independence party declares that the right to issue money is inherent in the government, and it favors the establishment of a central governmental bank through which the money so issued shall be put into general circulation.

"We demand a revision of the tariff, not by the friends of the tariff, but by the friends of the people, and declare for a gradual reduction of tariff duties with just consideration for the rights of the consuming public and of established industry.

"We advocate such legislation, both state and national, as will suppress the bucket-shop and prohibit the fictitious selling of farm products for future delivery."

Chicago, July 29.—No matter what the ultimate fate of the independence party shall be, whether it shall go on as its promoters hope and become a real factor in American politics, or whether it shall have died a-borning, none who participated in the session is likely to forget their experiences.

As per program, Thomas L. Hisgen, of Massachusetts, was named as the candidate for president.

"Hearst wants his editor, Graves," was the tip passed along and the New York man, whom Georgia used to be very proud of when he lived there, was selected as running mate of the Massachusetts oil merchant. He had no opposition and the convention which had previously adopted a platform at once adjourned sine die.

VIRGINIANS IN CAMP.

The Chattanooga, Tenn., news has the following to say respecting the Virginians at Chickamauga, with especial reference to the men from this city:

Coming from Alexandria is Company G, 70th Virginia Regiment, Capt. Slaymaker, commanding. This is, perhaps, the youngest company which has been or will be encamped at Chickamauga during the present maneuvers The company is composed of the flower of the old Virginia town on the banks of the Potomac, and nestling under the shadow of the United States Capitol building and Washington's Monument. The boys are all clean-cut fellows and show their good breeding in their every manner. Last night a squad from Company G, 70th Virginia, led by Corporal A. Lenox Ubler, made a raid on The Chattanooga News editorial rooms and spent some time with members of the staff. Mr. Unler is a newspaper man and for some time was connected with the El Paso (Texas) Evening News when Mr. W. V. Turley, now a member of The Chattanooga News editorial force, was managing editor of the El Paso paper.

The boys from Virginia have good equipment and are very much pleased with Chickamauga Park. They say it is an ideal camping ground, and after the work of pitching the tents was finished, numbers of them spent the afternoon looking over the Park, noticing especially the monuments and tablets, some of which commemorated incidents and battles which their fathers took part in.

BITTEN BY DOGS.

Quite an excitement was caused on lower Wolfe street yesterday afternoon about 5:30 o'clock when it was learned that a mad dog was at large and had bitten three or four dogs, killed a cat and several chickens. A little child of Mr. Harry Poss, superintendent of the Paff Shoe Co., was on its pavement and was bitten on the arm by the canine. Dr. M. W. O'Brien was sent for and administered to the little one. It is also reported that the dog had bitten one man and snapped at others. Capt. A. J. Fair, armed with a double barreled shot gun, paraded the street in search of the brute, but it is learned that the dog is still at large.

The dog was caught this morning and killed by Officer Gill.

A boy named Ervin Ketlin, living on lower Prince street, was badly bitten on the leg by a dog near the corner of Prince and Fairfax streets this morning. He and a boy named Underwood were pulling at a brown canine and throwing stones at it, until the dog in self defense snapped the Ketlin boy on the leg. He was taken to Dr. Warfield's office where his injuries were dressed.

ALMOST READY TO FLY.

For the first time since its arrival the big gas balloon of rubber and silk, designed by Capt. Thomas S. Baldwin to carry and be a part of the new army dirigible airship, was unfolded and inflated with air yesterday afternoon at Fort Myer, before a crowd of spectators.

"We are doing all we can to get ready for the first flight on Saturday," Capt. Baldwin said. "There are a number of assemblement questions still to be decided. I must have a chance to talk to Mr. Curtiss about them. He is as much interested in the result as I am. Under the specifiations we must keep on an even keel while sailing. We must watch out, therefore, for the question of balance, which is a question of weight. We will see how this engine works, with its present weight, and we may put the steerman's platform a little more forward than originally intended or a little more aft.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Matthew Williams arrested by Officer Garvey for stealing a pair of pincers from John Cowling, was fined $5.

Robert Smith, colored, arrested by Officer Talbot for using $2 50 belonging to Mr. James Pulman, which was for the purpose of procuring a license, was given until 6 o'clock this evening to make good the money.

George West, Sam Mandy and Mike Taylor, three Italians arrested by Officers Sampson, Bell and Garvey for fighting, were fined $10 each.

Two colored boys arrested by Officers Bell, Garvey and Sampson for fighting were fined $5 each.

DANGEROUS ITALIANS.

Three tough looking Italians, neither of whom could utter a word of English, were before Justice Caton today for fighting. It seems that these individuals were bent on going to barrooms, getting drinks, and in order to avoid paying for the same start a rumpus. Last night three of them were picked up by Officers Garvey, Sampson and Bell and each of them carried a dirk knife, the largest ever seen here. Justice Caton disposed of them it is thought for some time.

POSTMASTER ARRESTED.

Charles M. Minnis, postmaster at Occupacia, Essex county, was arrested on Monday by Deputy Marshal Glover, of this city, for the embezzlement of funds of the money order department. He was taken to Fredericksburg and brought before U. S. Commissioner Butzner who remanded him to jail in that city until Friday, when he will be given a hearing.

BASEBALL.

The West End Stars baseball team of West End, yesterday defeated the County Stars from toll gate precinct by a score of 15 to 3.

The West End Stars also defeated the All Glass Pullers by a score of 27 to 2.

SOLDIERS AT FORT HUNT.

Much interest is being manifested in the programme of instructions at Fort Hunt. The District soldier boys are entering into the duties with a zeal equal to regulars. Many visitors are attending the drills etc., and the boys are enjoying the outing. The following is the programme for tomorrow. Regular troops assisting militia at guns; militia reserves, battery drill, 8 a. m. and 8:10 p. m.; non commissioned officers' recitations, 11 a m.; n. c. staff, battle and fire command station instruction, 8 a. m: and 8:10 p. m.; supports, as patrols, 8 a. m.; non commissioned officers' recitations, 11 a m.; assembly of officers and non-commissioned officers and instructors, 8:10 p. m.; officers of reserves, lecture. "Motors and Their Carriages and Their Use in Coast Defense," 11 a. m.; officers of supports, lecture, "Outpost Duty."

NEW LIGHTS ON POTOMAC.

About August 15 two new lights will be established on the Potomac river. Both will be post lantern lights. One, to be known as Ship Neck Light, will be established in 12½ feet of water on the shoal making out to the northward of the south side of the entrance of Coan river, southerly side of the Potomac. The light will be a fixed white lantern on a three-pile, black horizontally slatted structure, 14 feet above the water. The other light will be established in 8½ feet of of water on the edge of the shoal making out to the northward of Barn Point, south side of the Yeocomico river, southerly side of the Potomac. The structure, similar to that at Ship Neck, will be 16 feet above the water, and the light will be a fixed white.

AMUSEMENTS.

Crowds nightly fill the moving picture houses and, notwithstanding the warm weather and other attractions, these places of amusement are securing their full share of trade. At the Alexandria Amusement Company tonight a very funny reel, "Hunting Teddy Bears," will be shown and in addition to two of the reels of last night "Side Show Wrestlers" will also be put on.

At the Opera House Ingram, Kyle & Co. will appear in funny sketches entitled "A Haunted House" and "A Quiet Family," both good shows.

TEACHERS' EXAMINATIONS.

The summer examinations for teachers—white and colored, are being held by Superintendent Kemper at Peabody school building, and will continue until Friday. The following presented themselves this morning for general examination: Misses Amanda R. Carne, Nancy K. Grob, Fannie V. Burke, and Mr. Mahlon H. Janney, all of Alexandria. Augustine G. Isler, colored, of Alexandria. The following will take the professional examination: Misses Ada V. Grigg and Mary Bontz.

CHRIST CHURCH.

The exterior of Christ Church has been neatly repainted which adds greatly to the appearance of the old edifice. The steeple too has been thoroughly repaired without and within and also repainted.

During the vacation of the rector, Rev. W. J. Morton, Rev. Dr. S. A. Wallis, of the Theological Seminary, will preach on the first and second Sundays of August. Mr. Morton will return to preach on the third Sunday and Rev. Berryman Green, of the Seminary, will preach on the fourth and fifth Sundays.

LIST OF PRISONERS.

City Sergeant Cox in compliance with the request of Superintendent Morgan, of the penitentiary, has sent to that official a list of the prisoners confined in jail in this city with the statement that he will turn over to him such of the prisoners as the judge of the Corporation Court directs to work on the public roads of the state. There are 16 state prisoners, but only 6 of these are available for such work. There are 15 city prisoners in jail but all of these who are able will be retained here to work on the streets of the city.

MIDNIGHT MARAUDERS.

The residents of all sections of the city are complaining of strangers entering their back yards at all hours of the night, supposedly for the purpose of robbing. The last reported was on south Lee street where a man was discovered at 1 o'clock in the back yard of one of the residences. After frightening the entire neighborhood, the intruder escaped.

ROLLED FOR $1.50.

A well known citizen, who for many years was the stationary engineer at the Southern Railway shops, was "rolled" for $1.50 yesterday, all the money he had. He does not know who "touched" him, or where he was when relieved of his coin. He was preparing for a trip to Colonial Beach tomorrow, and it is now presumed he will be unable to go.

EXTENSIVE IMPROVEMENTS.

The Old Dominion Glass Company is undergoing extensive repairs and the next season which will begin after Labor Day promises to be better than usual. It will be remembered that during a certain period last year one furnace was dispensed with, throwing a number of men out of work, but it is the opinion of the owners that no such thing will happen this year.

STILL ON SHORT TIME.

The employees of the Southern Railway shops are anxiously awaiting an order to work full time. For the past year the men have been only working half time and barely making a living. Judging from the expressions of President Finley a few days ago the men expect a return to former conditions shortly.

EXCURSION LAST NIGHT.

One of the largest and most pleasant excursion from this city on the steamer Jamestown was that by the Elk's Dramatic Club last night. Notwithstanding the immense crowd everybody enjoyed themselves. The $5 goldpiece was held by Mrs. Theodore U. Ale, but no one was lucky enough to win it.

THE WEATHER.

There is little change to note in the weather. Last night the temperature was milder and remained so till this morning when the mercury began to rise again and by noon it had gotten up to 85°. Early this morning a heavy fog hung over the river which considerably interfered with navigation.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. K. Kemper, jr., who for several weeks past has been visiting relatives in Delaplane, has returned to her home in this city.

Mr. W. B. Lynn, of Prince William county, is visiting Capt. George Keys on Duke street.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Helen J. Jones, daughter of the late Philip Jones, of Rapidan, to Mr. Llewellyn Hoxton, of Seminary Hill, near Alexandria, now associated with the University of Virginia. The wedding will take place in September. Mr. Hoxton is now traveling abroad.

Mrs. Mamie E. Sonner has gone to Fredericksburg to visit relatives.

Miss M. Padgett, Mrs. C. W. Tucker and children, of Washington, and Mrs. E. H. Hammond, of Alexandria, are at "Watson" cottage, Colonial Beach, for the summer, and have as their guest for the remainder of the season their mother, Mrs. Joseph Padgett, sr.

Mr. and Mrs. George S. French have returned from a delightful trip through southwest Virginia.

Mrs. John P. Robinson and Miss Josie Robinson have returned from Fauquier county where they very pleasantly spent a few weeks.

The Ramblers Club will leave for a two week's trip on the schooner Grapeshot about August 6.

Mrs. Lolia Garnett, wife of D. K. Garnett, of Middlesex county, died a few days ago, aged 44 years.

Mr. R. M. Graham and family have returned from a visit to Hamilton.

Mr. Lorenzo Wolford has returned from Atlantic City.

Mr. Chas. A. Evard and family are spending a week at Happy Home station on the W., A. & Mt. Vernon Railway.

Miss Mary C. Walker, of this city, and Miss Mamie Kinzel, of Winchester, are spending about fifteen days at Niagara Falls. They will visit other places while on the trip.

The household effects of the recently called pastor of the First Baptist Church—Rev. W. F. Watson—arrived on the Norfolk steamer this morning and were carried to the parsonage on Columbus street. Mr. Watson is expected here in a day or two and will occupy the pulpit of the Baptist Church on Sunday next.

Councilman Robt. L. Monroe is confined to his home by sickness.

Mrs. D. W. Gilliam, of Newport News, is visiting Mrs. A. A. Davis, on north Columbus street.

Mr. William Ferrell, a former resident of this city, but for the past ten years traveling for the U. S. Government in the south, paid a visit to his friends in this city yesterday.

Mr. Ernest R. Boyer, who for the past two years has been engaged in paving and granolithic work in Richmond, has again located at his home in this city, where he will begin business again.

Messrs. George D. Hopkins and Geo. H. Schwarzmann and their families are summering at Thousand Islands and Niagara Falls, and before their return will spend some time at Atlantic City.

The condition of Mr. Charles Bendheim has considerably improved.

Mrs. T. C. Darst and baby will return to Richmond on Wednesday, after a two months' stay with her mother, Mrs. Wise, in Alexandria. Mr. Darst is expected home from Europe about the middle of next month.—[Richmond Times Dispatch.

Burned in Jail.

Richland, Ga., July 29.—Preferring death in the flames to the horrors of the convict camp, Jim Williams, colored, set fire to the county jail today and was burned to death in the flames that almost destroyed the building. Williams has been sentenced recently to the camp and he declared that he would kill himself. He could have been rescued as easily as were the other prisoners, but he flung himself into the flames which he had kindled and was burned to a crisp.

New York Stock Market.

New York, July 29.—There was a show of strength at the opening following the important news developments of yesterday and a number of the stocks made some material gains, but before the end of the first hour a downward movement was in progress.

The denials of William K. Vanderbilt's injury in an accident in France were followed by some recoveries. The volume of business was small and the tone all through the last half hour was hesitating.

Indications are that a hot fight is to be expected when Virginia Harned's suit for divorce from her husband, E. H. Sothern, comes to trial at Reno, Nev. Sothern has arrived there and no sooner had he reached the town than Attorney Harwood, his counsel, filed a sealed answer to Miss Harned's accusations. This makes it a certainty that Sothern will not acquiesce in her plea for divorce.

Out for the Money.

Akron, O., July 29.—Most of the ministers yesterday are out for the money said Rev. Arthur Gee, formerly of Philadelphia, in an address to his flock of the Arlington Baptist Church here. "I am not out for the money, and I'll quit." And he did. Today his congregation is digesting a few remarks Mr. Gee made on leaving the ministry. They were: "There is too much commercialism in the churches. Churchianity is taking the place of Christianity. I won't accept any creed to bind my faith. I want liberty of church and freedom to preach. I can't get these churches. That's why I quit."

"E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ill.—Gentlemen—In 1897 I had a disease of the stomach and bowels. In the spring of 1902 I bought a bottle of Kodol and the benefit I received all the gold of Georgia could not buy. May you live long and prosper. Yours very truly C. N. Cornell, Roding, Ga., Aug., 27, 1906" Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

CHARGES AGAINST A RICHMOND PHYSICIAN.

Dr. Arthur B. Cosby, a well-known young physician of the Church Hill section of Richmond, was arrested Saturday on a charge of criminal malpractice. He was bailed in the sum of one thousand dollars. Edgar Miche, a young man, has been held for the grand jury in the same case charged with having procured the services of Dr. Cosby for Miss Lydia Butler, of Church Hill. The young woman was desperately ill, and the mother, when she realized what had happened, waited until her daughter had recovered and then informed the officers, who made the arrest.

ELECTROCUTED.

Shocked to death in a manhole was the lot of James O'Connell, in New York Monday, who is said to have been Admiral Dewey's chief gunner on the Olympia when the first shot opened fight in Manila Bay. O'Connell was lying on his back making repairs to the channel rail under the trolley tracks on Sixth avenue. After he had descended to his work with a handful of bolts he was heard to cry as if in distress and was dead when a fellow-workman reached him. His body was badly seared by electricity.
